St. Patrick's Annual Celebration

1930

Monday, March the 17th,

CITY HALL AUDITORIUM

REGINA

The children of the Western Gael
Are gathered here this Patrick's night,
To pledge the dear old Innisfail,
To drink her health in bumpers bright.
'Tis true we may not see her more,
Still we're not likely to forget,
And though we've sought another shore,
We're Irish yet! We're Irish yet!

O CANADA!

O Canada! Our home, our native land,
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The true North strong and free;
And stand on guard, O Canada!
We stand on guard for thee.
O Canada! glorious and free!
We stand on guard, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

THE DEAR LITTLE SHAMROCK

There's a dear little plant that grows in our isle,
'Twas St. Patrick himself sure that set it.
And the sun on his labor with pleasure did smile
And with dew from his eye often wet it.

It smiles through the bog, through the brake and the
mireland;
And he called it the dear little Shamrock of Ireland.

The dear little Shamrock,
The sweet little Shamrock;
The dear little, sweet little Shamrock of Ireland.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

O' blest be the day when the green banner floated,
Sublime o'er the mountains of green Innisfail.
When her sons to her glory and freedom devoted,
Defied the invader to tread her soil.
When back o'er the main they chased the Dane,
And gave to religion and learning their spoil;
When valor and mind together combined,
O' wherefore lament o'er the glories departed,
Her sun shall shine out with as vivid a ray.
For ne'er had she children so brave or true hearted,
As those she now sees on St. Patrick's Day.

MOTHER MACHREE

---

There's a spot in my heart which no colleen may own,
There's a depth in me soul never sounded or known,
There's a place in my memory, my life that you fill,
No one can take it, no one ever will.
Sure I love the dear silver that shines in your hair,
And the brow that's all furrowed and wrinkled with care,
I kiss the dear fingers, so toil worn for me,
O' God bless you, and keep you, Mother Machree.

WHEN IRISH EYES ARE SMILING

There's a tear in your eye
And I'm wondering why,
For it never should be there at all;
With such power to your smile
Sure a stone you'd begile,
And never a tear drop should fall.

With your sweet lilting laughter,
Like some fairy song,
And your eye shining bright as can be;
You should laugh all the while,
And all other times smile,
Now smile a smile for me.

When Irish eyes are smiling
Sure it's like a morn in spring;
In the lilt of Irish laughter
You can hear the Angels sing.
When Irish hearts are happy,
All the world seems bright and gay,
And when Irish eyes are smiling,
They would steal your heart away.

BELIEVE ME, IF ALL

Believe me, if all those endearing young charms,
Which I gaze on so fondly today,
Where to change by tomorrow and fleet in my arms,
Like fairy gifts fading away.
Thou would'st still be adored as this moment thou art,
Let thy loveliness fade as it will;
And around the dear ruin, each wish of my heart
Would entwine itself verdantly still.

THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND ME

I'm lonesome since I crossed the hill and o'er the moor and valley,
Such heavy thoughts my heart do fill since parting with my Sally,
I seek no more the fine and gay, for each doth but remind me,
How swift the hours did pass away with the girl I left behind me.

COME BACK TO ERIN

Come back to Erin, Mavourneen, Mavourneen,
Come back aroon to the land of thy birth,
Come with the shamrock and springtime, Mavourneen,
And it's Killarney shall ring with our mirth.
Sure when we lent you to beautiful England,
Little we thought of the lone winter days,
Little we thought of the hush of the star shine,
O'er the mountains, the bluffs and the braes.

Then come back to Erin, Mavourneen, Mavourneen,
Come back again to the land of thy birth,
Come back to Erin, Mavourneen, Mavourneen,
And it's Killarney shall ring with our mirth.
